
Masterclass: Brokering Partnerships for Results

This workshop is for you, if you are active in partnerships or about to be.... and determined that those partnerships are more than fine words. We will dive into an overview of the skills, tools and mindsets needed for those who are the catalysts for partnership success. You will leave this interactive master class with an understanding of:

- An overview of how to build shared commitments to action – tools, mindsets and challenges
- Partnership life-cycle phases that need attention for success
- What this means for the role you play in partnering.

Trish Hall is an internationally accredited Partnership Broker and mentor. She has facilitated stakeholders and brokered partnerships in each sector in New Zealand, in Australia and the Pacific.
